

Federations" with the aim of making it more effective and result oriented. Towards this end, the infrastructure available with the Sports Authority of India for training purposes is also being upgraded. However, it is also for the NSFs concerned with various games, including Football, Hockey and Cricket to take appropriate measures for improvement of performance at the international level.

Separately the Ministry is also considering the launching of a 'Panchayat Yuva Khel Abhiyan' with the aim of significantly enhancing access to organized sports and games facilities for the youth, particularly in the rural areas, and in the process widening the catchment for spotting and nurturing of sports talent and promotion of excellence in sports, and thereby also enhancing the levels of performance and achievements at the national and international levels. Discussions with the State Governments, the Ministries concerned and other stake holders in this regard are underway.

National games in Jharkhand in 2007

†2565. SHRI AJAY MAROO: Will the Minister of YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS be pleased to state:

(a) the latest information available with Government regarding national games to be held in Jharkhand in 2007.

(b) whether Government are satisfied with preparations being made for such games; and

(c) if not, the steps being taken in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS (SHRI MANI SHANKAR AIYAR): (a) The Indian Olympic Association have allotted the 34th National Games to be held in 2007 to Jharkhand. However, the specific dates are yet to be finalized. In all, 28 sports events are expected to take place, out of which 20 events are proposed to be conducted at Ranchi and 8 events at Jamshedpur. The infrastructure projects being constructed for the National Games include: the Main Stadium; indoor stadia for Badminton/ Table Tennis, Basketball/Volleyball and Gymnastics; Velodrome; Shooting Range; playfields for Kho kho/Kabaddi; Games Village; renovation of the Birsa Munda Stadium; and hockey stadium with astro-turf.
